

9 November 2016

“And in the red corner I give you...

...in his first appearance at this venue, the magnificent, the spectacular, the one-and-only Waaayyyne Griffiths!” Wayne Griffiths? Surely, it can’t be – that’s Wayne Griffiths from One Financial Solutions! What’s he doing in a boxing ring!

Yes, you read it here first, Wayne Griffiths, One Financial Solutions’ genial managing director, is heading for the ring at an action-packed evening of live charity boxing. Encouraged, or maybe coerced, by the organisers, Wayne is one of fourteen amateur, first-time boxers donating their pride – and risking a black eye – by taking part in a seven-match tournament to raise funds in aid of amateur-boxing legend, Harry Senior.

Tragically, Harry suffered a stroke in December 2009 during a sparring session and needed life-saving neurosurgery at The National Hospital for Neurology and Neurosurgery followed by ongoing rehabilitation at Kings College Hospital. Life for Harry will never be the same again.

The Construction Collar Boxing Tournament has been organised by AG Services and is being held at the HG Wells Conference Centre in Woking on Saturday 12 November. Driving force behind the event is Allan Gray, an ex-boxer and close friend of Harry’s, who has organised the tournament, financed it, found the sponsors, booked the venue and trained the novice boxers – an incredible task that truly deserves resounding success.

Tickets for the tournament are £40 per person; tables of ten are available at £800 which includes a three-course dinner. If you can’t be there, please support ‘Harry’s Fund’ by donating an auction prize – tickets and further information are available from admin@ag-servicesltd.co.uk or by calling 020 3645 1212.